New skatepark launch

By Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

DETAILED plans for a £160,000 skatepark project in Axminster will be revealed at a public meeting on Friday, February 7th.

The Steering Group of Axminster Skatepark has called the meeting, which will start at 7pm in the Guildhall.

The aim is to turn the existing skatepark at Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre into a state-of-the-art facility – in memory of Tom Chubb.

Tom was a regular user of the Cloakham skatepark, but died in a car accident on the A358 at Musbury at the age of 18 on October 31st in 2012.

Cloakham Skatepark Management Group set up Axminster Skatepark Fund shortly after his death to see the project through.

Dedicated group

The dedicated group is made up of both youngsters and adults, including Tom's mum Eve and his brother Ed.

Members of he group visited other skateparks in the region and came up with an 18-feature design including items known as quarterpipe, flatbank, half taco and more.

Town, district and county councillor Andrew Moulding is also a member of the group. In a call for a big turn out at the public meeting, he said: "Axminster is becoming a leading town for sports provision, where we cater for virtually every sport.

"We wish to impress you with our proposed project and demonstrate that this will be a great asset for Axminster and the surrounding area.

"At this stage, we seek your support and wish to explain how we are working towards charitable status.

"Our chosen contractors - Maverick Industries, will be showing their preliminary design, which aims to attract residents from under 10 years of age to over 30.

"We hope you will join us on the February 7th and give us the opportunity to present our project and the benefits it will provide for a wide range of future users."

The opening date depends on how long it will take to raise the money needed, but Mr Moulding hoped the new skatepark will be up and running within 18 months to two years from now.

Websters: compromise rejected

A COMPROMISE that would see a bulkier feature replace a derelict building in Axminster town centre has failed to sway East Devon District Council's (EDDC) conservation team.

Plans to provide a car park on the disused Webster's site are in jeopardy.

Part of the plan is to raze to the ground the derelict former home of Busy Bee to provide a wider pavement and an increased visibility splay for drivers and pedestrians alike.

But EDDC's conservation team opposes the plan because it feels the run-down building (pictured) makes "a positive contribution to the significance of the conservation area".

EDDC planning officers are yet to make a recommendation/decision, but the desire to save the building is seen as a potential threat to the car park project.

SPORT

Local derby washed out

ONCE again the wet weather bit deep into scheduled the local football lists.

The big South West Peninsula League Division One local derby between Axminster Town and Sidmouth Town was a victim with the Colyton Grammar School pitch waterlogged.

The local duo face tough looking matches against two of the top three next Saturday.

Axminster head off to Foxhayes where third-placed Exwick Villa lay in wait.

At the same time Sidmouth are due to entertain table toppers Teignmouth at Manstone Road.

Feniton beat Seaton Town 1-0 in the sole Division Five match, a speculative drive out of the blue from Billy Parnell dividing the teams.

Bottom side Seaton played well but were denied by some excellent keeping from Chris Palfrey.

Sidbury United drew 2-2 at the University in their Division One clash and felt they paid the price for not taking advantage of the first-half wind on their backs.

Adam Connett and Dan Churchill scored for Sidbury. Connor Hamill and Jack O'Dowd were the college marksmen. See page 61

From the editor's chair
Anita's tube challenge

WE major in this week's issue on the charity that Pulman's View From and our sister papers have adopted for the next two years – the Rotary founded Water Survival Box.

Hopefully, regular readers will now be well acquainted with the charity after our coverage since launching our appeal at the end of November. We have set ourselves a target of raising £10,000.

Organised by the Rotary Club of Chelwood Bridge in North Somerset, the charity sends survival boxes wherever disaster strikes in the world and has recently sent 800 boxes to aid the stricken people of the Philippines following Typhoon Hayian.

Each box costs £150 to put together and dispatch and includes one vital piece of equipment – a water filter that can provide a family of four with water for a year.

We have been encouraging readers and local organisations through our distribution network in East Devon, West Dorset and South Somerset to support our appeal and in just two months we have already raised in excess of £2,000 which includes a generous donation of £700 from local solicitors Scott Rowe and many individual donations.

Our staff are also doing their bit and you will see a four-page supplement in this week's issue promoting Anita's Underground Challenge". This is a highly unusual attempt by our accounts manager, Anita Routley, who lives in Uplyme, to visit as many of the 280 underground stations in London.

Anita has been securing a £5 donation to sponsor a tube station and is committed to visited at least every station that is sponsored and at the time of going to press she had already raised more than £1,000. You can read all about her efforts in the supplement.

Anita wil be attempting this unique fundraising challenge over the weekend of February 15th/16th and I will there at her last tube station with a big hug!

If you would like to sponsor one of the vacant stations for a fiver you can call Anita on 01297 446149.

◆ We are also indebted to the Mayor of Seaton, Councillor Gaynor Sedgwick, who has donated £100 from her Mayor's Fund to our Water Survival Box appeal. A former overseas aid worker. Councillor Sedgwick knows better than most what a difference such charities can make when disasters strike.

HONITON

Are McDonalds coming to town?

McDONALD'S, Travelodge, Home Bargains and Pets At Home are interested in setting up shop on Heathpark Industrial Estate in Honiton.

The companies came forward after East Devon District Council (EDDC) decided to test how attractive a specific EDDC-owned plot of land is.

The plot of land includes East Devon Business Centre and an adjoining site previously used by a waste collection contractor.

Initially, the plot was a firm favourite for the proposed relocation of EDDC's headquarters – but is now only one of five options.

As part of the relocation process, EDDC decided to seek expressions of interest for its Heathpark plot last year.

At the time, EDDC leader Paul Diviani said: "It is important to understand the value of this site and what interest there may be from potential buyers."

A report on the exercise has since been issued, and states: "The site was advertised through the Estates Gazette and the agents handling the process recorded a total of 39 requests for the Heathpark Information Pack.

"A total of eight Expressions of Interest (Bids) were received and included both food retail and non-food retail uses – including a restaurant, a hotel (Travelodge), drive through McDonald's, and other outlets such as Home Bargains and Pets At Home.

"Following a short review of the received bids, the four most financially advantageous proposals were identified and the associated developers were invited to an interview.

"All of those interviewed have been asked to further investigate/review aspects of their submissions including build costs and programme. Improved gross bids have since been received following interviews."

SEATON/COLYTON

District's quest to protect landscape

FINAL refusal of plans to develop the green wedge between Colyford and Seaton have proved the district council's determination to protect the landscape of East Devon.

That was the view of Councillor Helen Parr, chairman of East Devon District Council's Development Management Committee, who said the recent decision to refuse an appeal to develop the site proved that the council's determination to protect the landscape of East Devon was "both real and stoutly defended".

East Devon refused permission for Seaton Park (Devon) Ltd's plans to build 170 houses, light industrial units, two football pitches, pavilion, multi-use games area and new spine road on the green wedge, east of Harepath Road in Seaton. The developers appealed against the decision and a four-day appeal hearing was held in Colyford in December, with government-appointed planning inspector Geoffrey Hill announcing his decision to also refuse permission last week. He said: "This development would introduce a form of urbanised, or semi-urban (non-rural) development into the narrowest part of the current gap between Colyford and Seaton.

"This would markedly erode the present rural or undeveloped nature of this part of the green wedge, reducing the extent of truly undeveloped area to a single field adjacent to Stafford Brook."

Commenting on EDDC's successful defence of the refusal to allow this development, Councillor Parr said: "This latest success in a planning matter shows that our determination to protect the landscape of East Devon against the wrong kind of development is both real and stoutly defended. We will continue to weight each application on its merits and we will stand up to developers when we are confident that our case is strong."

SIDMOUTH

Library users are on the increase

SIDMOUTH Library staff are celebrating an increase in visitor numbers following a major refurbishment last year.

Nearly 16,000 visits have been made to the refurbished library since it reopened in October, and 130 people have become new members.

"Feedback from visitors young and old has been overwhelmingly positive," said Library Supervisor Carol Pentacost.

"We're delighted by how much library users like it."

Regular library user, Jane Mills, is celebrating after her comment about the library improvements was randomly chosen by staff from a sack of correspondence for a prize draw, winning a £20 book token.

The new-look library features a new, flexible layout and improved access for children, young people and their families, including moving the children's library from the first floor to the ground floor and creating a "teen zone".

There is also a dedicated quiet reading and study area, and the ambience of the library has been improved by making it brighter and more welcoming to encourage visitors.

The library also features new stock providing a greater choice of books for readers

College hands over uniform shop to ARC

HAND OVER: Helen Fitzgerald (ARC) and Lisa Ovenden.

AXE Valley Community College has made a deal to base its second-hand uniform shop in the premises of counselling service ARC, just down the road from the college.

The uniform shop was originally started three years ago by parent Lisa Ovenden whose children attended the college at the time.

A college spokesperson said: "The school is very grateful and wanted to say a huge thank you for all her hard work.

"Lisa handed over the role to ARC's shop and the college will now have a dedicated space in the shop stocked with a full range of uniform items."

Kate Pemberton from College Connect added: "Lisa's done a sterling job with all the second hand clothes and lost property.

"I love her tip about cleaning football boots in the dishwasher.

"The ARC shop is so handy just down the road from the college, there's nowhere else locally to pop in to get school uniform, especially at such reasonable prices.

Archaeology finds at Cloakham site?

ARCHAEOLOGISTS hope to have more information towards the end of the week about items unearthed at a Cloakham Lawn building site.

Archaeologists and developer Bovis Homes both stress that digging is routine at this stage of a development.

The county archaeologist is involved and a spokesperson for Devon County Council said: "The site is still being cleared of topsoil.

"It's too early to say what the character and date of the finds are."

A spokesperson for Bovis Homes said: "Bovis Homes fund the archaeology work that is carried out as a matter of course on developments such as this.

"Our specialist contractors are working closely with the archaeologist from the Devon team on the project.

"When they have completed their on-site investigations the site will be handed back to us and they will share their findings with the public."

Man arrested after Mole Avon incident

A MAN has been arrested on suspicion of committing a public order offence after an incident at Mole Avon Stores in Axminster.

The incident happened on Monday of last week when the man entered the store before threatening a member of staff.

The man left the store but was later arrested by police in Somerset.

He has been bailed pending further enquiries.

A spokesperson for Devon and Cornwall Police said: "We did attend [Mole Avon] after reports a man was threatening a member of staff but Avon & Somerset Police are now taking this job on."

Heritage winners

AXMINSTER Heritage's recent questionnaire in Pulman's View attracted more than 300 responses. Winners of the two £50 vouchers to spend at the River Cottage Canteen were Janet Glasson and Sandy Sinclair.

Town councillors 'astonished' by bid to retain derelict shop ster's site, and wants to build the car park as a temporary measure until a long-term solution for the site is found.

Explaining their latest move, Mr Barton said: "We offered to have a wall instead of railings around the right-hand landscaped seating and public art area that basically would replace the former Busy Bee building.

"The idea being to replace the 'bulk' of the building with less 'bulk' but 'bulk' all the same."

But the attempt failed, the EDDC conservation officer saying: " The addition of a rendered wall forming the right-hand splay of the access has not allayed my concerns regarding the demolition of no.9 Lyme Street.

"As long as there is no justification for the removal of this property I would strongly recommend the application for refusal."

Axminster Town Council has written to EDDC's planning team, strongly opposing the views of the conservation team, stating: "Councillors were astonished to read the comments of the district council's conservation officer.

"This building is an eyesore with no positive contribution towards the street scene.

"Local residents have at no time expressed to councillors the opinion that it has any historic interest or architectural merit which would warrant its retention.

"Indeed, for decades residents have been keen to see this derelict and dangerous site improved.

"The present application would be a step in that direction and should be improved without further delay.

"Axminster Town Council opposes any retention of the former Busy Bee building and its removal would allow realignment of the frontage to improve highway sight lines to the west and also the opportunity for a much needed widening of the pavement."

Mr Barton hopes the decision will be made by EDDC's Development Management Committee (DMC), and not under delegated powers by planning officers.

"He said: "It looks like the decision-making meeting will be Tuesday, March 4th March.

"Douglas Hull, in his capacity as district councillor and ward member, has ensured that a delegated refusal doesn't appear from nowhere by requesting officially that the application goes in front of the DMC."

District balance budget despite tough climate

EAST Devon District Council will be presenting a balanced budget for the financial year starting in April.

The good news is that through careful financial management the council goes into the next fiscal year in a fairly healthy position, with a small surplus of around £70,000 shown.

This will be used to help offset an expected deficit in 2015/16. Balancing the books will be even more difficult in years to come, as funding is squeezed further and demand for services continues to grow.

The council is proposing to freeze council tax for the fourth consecutive year for 2014/15 and will in turn receive a reward from the government in the form of a grant payment.

The Housing Revenue Account (HRA) Business Plan is on target and the HRA is in a healthy position to be able to meet housing service needs, planned improvements and to service £84.4million debt repayments. These arise from a loan taken out in 2012/13 to fund the purchase of its housing stock in a required payment to government.

Difficult

EDDC's Cabinet Member for Finance, Councillor David Cox, said: "Staying solvent is getting more difficult every year, with cuts in funding from central government becoming a regular thing, plus continuing low investment income – whilst at the same time there is an increase in demand for some services.

"We are working hard to maintain our front-line services in the face of ongoing financial challenges. These are by no means peculiar to East Devon – they are happening all over the country. Local authorities are currently seeing a set of unusual and extreme circumstances affecting their future. In each local authority area there are different needs and so each council has to find its own way of meeting these needs whilst at the same time coping with reductions in funding."

A key factor in these calculations is careful management of fees and charges. Car parking revenue is an important income stream and councillors are keenly aware of the fine balance needed between maintaining this valued income and supporting local people and businesses. At its last meeting, the Cabinet gave detailed consideration to a car park management review which aims to achieve this balance.

At its meeting on April 3rd 2013, the Cabinet recognised the need to address the funding gap for 2014/15 (indicated in the Medium Term Financial Plan) at an early stage. Agreed actions included adopting a strategy for use of New Homes Bonus monies – additional grant received from government based on housing growth – and setting up a Member Budget Working Party to deliver savings/increase income. The Budget Task And Finish Forum set up by the Overview and Scrutiny Committee had early involvement in considering proposals for savings and income potential.

Cheaper

Reducing costs is also an important element of prudent budgeting and the decision taken by Cabinet in 2013 to move from Knowle to more suitable accommodation that is cheaper to maintain is an example of this in practice. EDDC is continuing to seek out the best new location and funds invested in this search will start to be recouped once the move has been completed and the projected savings are being made.

Councillor Cox added: "A balanced draft budget has now been presented for 2014/15, following the work of the Budget Working Party. Good progress has also been made to balance the 2015/16 budget. Looking beyond this, the Council will continue to find it difficult to afford its spending plans due to continued government funding cuts, inflation, low investment income, freezing the council tax and ever-increasing demand for its services. Further work will be needed to present balanced budgets in the future".

Key dates in the budget-setting process:

◆ The draft Housing Revenue Account and Housing Service Plan 2014-15 was agreed by the Housing Review Board at its meeting on January 9th.

◆ The budget estimates were considered in detail by EDDC's Overview and Scrutiny Committee at its special meeting on January 15th.

◆ EDDC will meet with representatives of local businesses on Tuesday, January 21st in response to an invitation from the East Devon Business Support Group.

◆ Recommendations will now be referred to Cabinet for consideration on February 5th.

◆ The final decision on the 2014/15 draft revenue and capital budgets will be made by Council at its meeting on February 26th 2014.

◆ The East Devon Business Support Group is made up of the Association of East Devon Chambers of Trade, the National Farmers' Union, the Federation of Small Businesses and the Hospitality Business Support Organisation.

Complaints against councillors

MORE than 20 complaints have been submitted to East Devon District Council in the last three months, the council's standards committee heard last week.

A total of 23 complaints have been made since October 2013, mostly against town and parish councillors, but including five against district councillors. Two of the complaints have been referred for further investigation and 12 are still being assessed. The remainder have either been closed with an informal resolution, or there has been no case to answer.

An EDDC spokesperson said: "It would be fair to say that East Devon by its nature is a microcosm of many of the issues that today's society is wrestling with – high house prices, low average pay and unsatisfactory levels of affordable housing that combine to put pressure on communities in an area of high landscape value.

"The tensions that can be felt when different agendas are running can put a strain on relationships in local government and this is why it is important for individual members to follow codes of conduct and stick to the correct procedures, which have been designed to avoid conflict.

"Whilst the Monitoring Officer has a duty to consider complaints and come to a view on these, where possible she also tries to advise individual councillors at all levels of local government on the best way to approach differences of opinion to reduce the chances of conflict."

New group takes over from business forum

EAST Devon Business Support Group held its second meeting on Tuesday, January 21st at the Sidholme Hotel in Sidmouth.

The fledgling group was set up following the demise last year of East Devon Business Forum.

Still no decision on post office move

By Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

A DECISION on the proposed relocation of Axminster Post Office is taking much longer than expected.

More than two months have passed since the closure of the Axminster Post Office relocation public consultation, carried out by Post Office Ltd

It has been proposed to relocate Axminster Post Office and make it part of Martin's (McColl's) on the dangerous corner opposite the George Hotel building.

But many people and organisations have objected to the idea because the entrance to Martin's is on a narrow pavement alongside a busy road with heavy traffic.

The public consultation closed on November 6th last year, and Post Office Ltd says that a decision is usually made within a month of a consultation closing. But this particular case is dragging on.

A Post Office Ltd spokesperson said: '"Following a public consultation, we would usually expect to reach a decision in around one month's time, though this can take longer depending on the amount of correspondence received, the issues raised and other circumstances around the service in question.

""We are still considering all of the feedback received during the consultation on the proposed relocation of Axminster Post Office.

"A decision should be reached shortly, and customers, local representatives and the media will be informed as soon as that happens."

More attractions for new season at wildlife park

AN Axminster attraction which pulled in 12,000 visits last year is preparing for a new season.

Although enjoying a winter break, there is no hibernation at Axe Valley Wildlife Park – quite the opposite as new animals have been welcomed and improvements made.

Three muntjac deer arrived on January 20th to the park which features a motley crew of zebras, lemurs, wallabies, goats, various birds and many other animals.

Recently appointed education officer Marie Pulman hopes that the new warm-room for snakes, spiders and bugs will be a hit.

The park has also added a multi-purpose room that can be used as a restaurant, a birthday party venue and as a classroom for visiting schools.

Marie said: "We really want to get the schools visiting the park."

The new season gets under way on February 15th.

Catenians support charity worker's trip to South Pacific

AXMINSTER Catenians has presented a cheque for £500 to Isobel Worrall at Sacred Heart and St Aldhelm Church in Sherborne,

The gift was awarded by the Catenian Bursary Fund, which assists young Catholics to undertake voluntary charitable work, in sometimes strange and demanding circumstances.

Isobel's award will enable her to travel to the Diocese of Auki in the Solomon Islands in the South Pacific.

This is a relatively new catholic community in a very remote location, and she will have to travel by plane, via Australia, and finally by a four-hour boat journey to reach the location. She will undertake three months teaching and liturgical advice to schools and parishes in the Diocese, living with local people .

Members of Axminster Catenians are drawn from East Devon, West Dorset and South Somerset.

Legal Problem? Worried about Costs? Need Someone On Your Side?

MOST people at some point in life have problems where they should seek legal help and do not know where to turn. Where do you find independent legal advice without initial cost?

In days gone by there was a limited legal advice scheme, sponsored by the state, now no longer available or Legal Aid for some matters but, this is now only granted in very few cases, the majority of the population do not qualify for any assistance at all!

Citizens Advice Bureaus are under pressure and do not exist in many towns and villages and if so, on a very restricted basis. The traditional first port of call for legal help has been a high street solicitor.

Over the years many firms have closed branch offices other than in large centres and there are very few High Street outlets many of whom now charge even for an initial interview. The move has been towards large centres and a loss of personal contact, without the availability of home visits when necessary.

This does paint a rather bleak picture for those looking for legal help. However, help is on your doorstep. Milford & Dormor solicitors, a firm established as long ago as 1870 continue to offer a Free Initial Interview in respect of legal problems in many towns in the West Country, including Axminster and Seaton.

Within the Free Initial Interview you have an opportunity of explaining what your problem is and then receive advice as to how the Firm can help and, if instruction, what that will cost. The Firm also offers a range of funding options, including in some cases "no win no fee" and also paying fees by instalments.

So, for those occasions when you don't know where to turn and have a legal problem why suffer in silence? Take advantage of the FREE INITIAL INTERVIEW scheme.

Old school pals enjoy reunion on the high seas

by Kevin Fahey

FORMER school pals Helen Ing and Matthew Smith recently enjoyed a re-union that they are unlikely to ever forget.

Seventeen years after they last saw each other, 28-year-old Helen, who is from Beer, and Seaton-born Matthew, were thrown together while working in The Gulf off Dubai.

Helen is Leading Steward on the amphibious helicopter carrier HMS Illustrious which met up with the Royal Australian Navy ship, HMAS Melbourne, on which Matthew is Engineering Technician specialising in weapons.

The two vessels were working together as part of the international effort to tackle piracy off the Horn of Africa.

"I didn't know Matthew was out here until I got a message via the ship-to-ship communications," said Helen.

"Apparently our mums met shopping in Seaton and if it hadn't been for Matthew's mum telling him I was on board Illustrious, we would never have known we were out here working together.

"Mathew asked the ship's operation room to contact me. We haven't seen each other for 17 years."

On hearing the news the navy hierarchy quickly set up the meeting with a Sea King helicopter ferrying Helen over for a fond reunion with Matthew, whom she first met at the Manor House Primary School in Honiton (which closed in 2010). The pair also later worked together for St John's Ambulance in Seaton.

"They were very good friends at school but hadn't see each other for a long time," said Helen's mum, Mrs Marlene Ing, who lives with husband Peter in Beer.

"It was only when I luckily bumped into Matthew's mum, Alison King, selling Poppies outside Tesco before Christmas that we realised they were both going to be serving near Dubai."

Lieutenant Gemma Radcliffe of the Royal Navy said of Helen's visit: "It always surprises me how small the world's naval community is and how closely we work together."

To complete a memorable trip to Dubai with HMS Illustrious, Helen also met up with her brother John Ing, who is a teacher there.

Lions back Scout hut project

SEATON and District Lions Club were pleased to be able to present a cheque for £500 to the 1st Beer Scout Group on Thursday (January 23rd) as a contribution towards the cost of refurbishing their scout hut, writes IAN BARRADALE.

The Beer Scouts are presently fundraising to improve the thermal insulation of their home in Clapps Lane, Beer.

The hut, whilst currently wind and weatherproof, is of a basic timber construction with metal windows. It has virtually no insulation and what heat generated from the individual heaters rapidly disappears. This does limit some of the activities of the various sections, particularly in the winter months.

The Beer Scouts have estimated the cost of the works to be around £6,000 and made it the key aim for their fundraising over the next year.

So far, they have managed to raise £2,300 through various schemes such as jumble sales, bag packing, etc, and with the latest contribution from Seaton and District Lions Club have now reached a total of £2,800 towards the target of £6,000.

Brother and sister duo place third in competition

■ THIRD PLACE: Brother and sister due Ollie and Ellie Harris from Colyton, known as Six Days, came third in the Open Mic UK final

COLYTON'S brother and sister duo Six Days impressed judges in the Open Mic UK Grand Final, recently held at Birmingham National Exhibition Centre.

Performing their own material, acoustic singer-songwriters Ellie and Ollie Harris won third place, beating 9,000 acts nationwide.

The judging panel included representatives from Sony, Warner, Universal, Kerrang! and Syco Entertainment.

Six Days now have many well-received performances under their belts, with regular gigs at Mama Stones in Exeter, and recent appearances on BBC Radio Devon and BBC Introducing, as well as a growing local fanbase.

Judges and industry insiders posted the following comments on their performance at the comeptition:

"Great chemistry and superb sharing of the lead vocal. The harmonies were really tight, so much confidence as well. A great performance well done!" - Open Mic UK judges.

"With strong harmonies and really passionate songs, Six Days are a great young band from Devon. Their EP is a confident and impressive debut and their live performances are convincing and charismatic. Highly recommended!" - Thomas Brooman, co-founder of WOMAD Festival.

"Excellent harmonies, a very sensual and intense performance. You're like The White Stripes of bluegrass/folk. Great song and haunting performance. You guys are certainly unique and entertaining!" - Grand Final Judges

The exposure has led to requests from international record companies, world renowned writers and producers to collaborate with the duo. With a dedication to their music, Six Days continue to perform locally as well as further afield.

Web designer releases second book

By Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

COLYTON-based website designer Adrian W. West has had a second book published by an American company.

Adrian admits that the title of his second book, "Practical PHP and MySQL Website Databases - A Simplified Approach", is almost an essay in itself.

It is a design manual for producing interactive websites and is published by Apress, a subsidiary of American publishing giant Springer.

Adrian spotted a gap in the range of subjects covered by web design manuals.

He said: "Most design manuals on interactive, database driven websites assumed too much prior knowledge on the part of the reader.

"It was clear that a practical book for absolute beginners was needed."

His first book was a website design manual at intermediate level named "Practical HTML5 Projects", published in 2012 by Apress.

Once working as a chartered engineer, he made a career change to become the UK director of a correspondence school and has been teaching in one form or another since 1982. He introduced computers into his workplace in 1987 and taught the staff how to use them.

For the last 15 years, Adrian has designed and maintained websites for local and national businesses and charities.

For a time, he also served as a computer technician and teacher to about 100 people in the community.

To avoid disappointing his former clients, he launched a free computer-help web site at www.colycomputer-help.co.uk

Pupils take over the tills

A SHOPKEEPER and primary school pupils set up a temporary trading post in aid of charity.

Julian Rinaldi, who owns Musbury Garage and the adjoining SPAR store, donated chocolate boxes to be sold before Christmas in a classroom shop run by Musbury Primary School pupils.

Mr Rinaldi, a former pupil of the school, decided to donate a selection of boxes to raise money for the NSPCC.

As part of the deal Mr Rinaldi, who also had a ten-year spell as coach of the school football team, worked a shift behind the classroom shop counter.

He said: "It was great fun and nice to get the children involved in some role play. They were delighted with their boxes."

The Rinaldi family has run the Musbury Garage site for the last 32 years and Julian, pictured above with students, took over from his parents, Frank and Barbara, in 2008.

Play equipment chosen by schoolchildren now in place

THE much anticipated improvements to Payhembury's play area are now complete, after local children decided what eqipment they would like to see installed.

Payhembury Playing Field Committee and East Devon District Council have been working closely together with Payhembury Primary School to make £6,700 worth of improvements. This money has been contributed by developers through Section 106 funding for play, a condition of planning approval for a number of housing developments in the area.

Children had a choice of four designs and voted for their favourite in a special assembly. Of the 66 children who voted, 38 per cent chose the winning design by HAGS SMP, which includes a climbing wall, climbing net and a spinning item.

Peter Bentley from Payhembury Playing Field Committee, who has led on the project, said: "I'm delighted for the children that we now have a more exciting play area. We have achieved this with the excellent co-operation of Mrs Hammett and the school, with the pupils being really keen to get involved and help with the project. They have been a real credit to the village."

Penny Hammett, headteacher at Payhembury Primary School, said: "I am so delighted to see the new equipment in place. The whole village has contributed to improving the facilities for the children and they are very excited about spending time on it.

"The children thoroughly enjoyed being involved in the process and I know it has given them a sense of responsibility knowing that they have chosen it and now want to look after it."

Councillor Iain Chubb, EDDC Cabinet Member for the Environment, said: "I'm keen to help promote a healthy lifestyle through outdoor activities. The new equipment has brightened up the play area and given the children a greater choice of exciting activities.

"Especially gratifying is the way EDDC and the people in the parish went about selecting the equipment with a truly participatory approach enabling local children to make the decision."

The four designs that the youngsters chose from were provided by companies who followed the children's design brief for the area. They came up with this early last year, when EDDC visited Payhembury Primary School and Payhembury Playing Field Committee visited the Youth Club to find out what type of activities children wanted in the play area.

■ EARLY Years children from St Andrew's Primary School in Chardstock made the short trip to Axminster to visit Pets at Home. The trip was part of their current studies on animals and the highlight was meeting some of the pets available in the store, including a rabbit, a hamster and a guinea pig.

Society member demonstrates marine art

THE January demonstration of Seaton and District Arts Society took place as usual in the Town Hall and was well attended in spite of the appalling weather.

One of the well-known members of the society, Bob Bradshaw, gave a demonstration entitled "Perspective and Line in Marine Art".

Bob produces watercolours and cards of Seaton and the surrounding scenery, and he explained that his background was actually in Blackpool, designing the famous lighting displays, as well as designing dolls' house furniture, so he is used to working on all sizes of art from the miniature to the very large.

He explained how to position figures in a landscape, remembering where the eye-line of the artist is all the time, and how to give the illusion of looking down onto a beach or looking up at a cliff.

The focal point of a picture, whether it be a boat or a person, will always be the most clear and detailed, whereas the surrounding scenery, which only comes into our peripheral vision, will be less detailed.

Colour is also used to give the illusion of distance, with the colours gradually fading and becoming more blue, which is the colour of the atmosphere and also therefore of the sky, although the work on a watercolour actually progresses the other way, with the artist starting with the distant view and then adding in the closer parts of the scene and becoming more vivid and more detailed. Bob was sketching all the time to clarify his meaning.

A particularly useful explanation was how to draw boats from any angle, using a box outline in order to contain the 3D object.

The society members warmly thanked him for his interesting talk. The next meeting in the Town Hall will be on February 3rd with Alan Cotton, who has travelled on art holidays with Prince Charles, evaluating members' work. Visitors welcome for a charge of £3.

New member joins Rotary with donation

TWO members of the Rotary Club of Axminster collecting for charities got more than they bargained for when ex-Rotarian Peter Creek made a donation and asked if he would be able to visit the club prior to rejoining.

After a number of visits to the Friday lunchtime meetings at the Conservative Club in Trinity Square, accompanied by his sponsor Rotarian Bill Coltham, Peter was warmly welcomed to the club as a new member by president Ian Crawford.

Peter and his wife Nicola have lived in the area for a number of years, and now resides in Crewkerne Road, Raymonds Hill.

theWI INSPIRING WOMEN Women's Institutes ROUND UP

SEATON

THE January meeting of Seaton WI was held on Tuesday 21st at the Methodist Church Hall, Seaton.

President Ann Attridge opened the meeting by welcoming everyone, including four visitors and wishing everyone a happy and healthy New Year.

The singing of "Jerusalem" was followed by monthly business reports and a team was chosen to take part in the Devon County Quiz to be held at Offwell Village Hall in February.

After tea and biscuits, members enjoyed an illustrated talk by Wendy Hall, entitled "Monet and his Garden".

Wendy gave members an insight into Monet's life, showing slides of some of his paintings and examples of paintings by other artists from the Impressionist movement. The ladies were also shown slides of Monet's home at Giverny, which Wendy had visited, and the garden which had given Monet so much inspiration. The vote of thanks was given by Aimee Guard.

Flower of the Month was won by Zelma Lindsay-Smith and the competition "Favourite Garden Picture" by Aimee Guard.

The next meeting is a members' social meeting to be held on February 18th at the Methodist Church Hall at 2pm. New members and visitors are always welcome.

COLYTON

THE President Jean Hutton welcomed members and visitors from the Seaton Group of WIs to the New Year Party.

It was reported that the Lunch Club would be meeting at the end of February at The Kingfisher in Colyton and those wishing to attend to contact Margaret Barker. Birthday cards were distributed and also a card for Joy Burley. Brenda Clark has arranged a theatre visit to the Northcott on March 22nd.

Members were advised that the next council meeting would meet in Torquay on April and the group meeting at Colyton on May 12th, for which members were encouraged to produce a knitted hat for the competition.

The branch is currently appealing to all members as a new group secretary is needed.

Everyone enjoyed the tea provided by members and taxed their brains on the pub quiz. The Flower of the Month was won by Brenda Clark with Jean Hutton in second.

The February meeting is on third Tuesday at St John's Hall where the guest talk will be on "History of the British Seaside Holiday" and the competition with be "Seaside Holiday Photo". Visitors welcome.

MUSBURY & WHITFORD

THE January meeting was held on the 14th at Whitford Village Hall.

Apologies were taken and many beautiful birthday posies were given out.

The speaker was Les May of Devon Freewheelers. Members agreed that the voluntarily work of the charity was amazing, especially as they use all unpaid volunteers - about 40 in total with just one woman.

One of the basics of the volunteers' training is that they have to pass the Advanced Motor Cycle as they deliver blood and other medical items to both patients and hospitals on motorbikes, with most work being carried out during the night.

Members were told that the most important thing for the charity was publicity, and then automatically comes fundraising.

The vote of thanks was given by Penny Strain.

Names were taken for the county quiz in February, as well as those interested in joining member Maureen on a walk which she will lead.

Members filled donation boxes for Veras Funeral Charity box, Fortuneswell Trust, a cancer charity.

The next meeting is Tuesday, February 11th and will be a members' night, which starts at 7pm at Whitford Village Hall.

BEER

BEER WI president Anne Gladstone welcomed members and visitors to the group's New Year Party, with representatives attending from the Colyton, Colyford, Seaton, Axmouth and Musbury & Whitford branches.

The president thanked all those who had attended the Over 60s Christmas Lunch and all those who had helped to make this a very successful event.

All 2,000 raffle tickets were sold for the quilt gifted by the Beer Quilters and Dee Spence-Thomas' son, who lives in Australia, won the raffle. Dee will be taking it out to him when she visits this summer.

Beer members all brought a plate of food to share at the party and the committee provided drinks and crackers.

Secretary Sue Ball provided three quizzes for members and guests to work on, and musical entertainment was provided by the seven ladies who make up the Kroft Originals.

AXE RIVER

AXE River WI is the name chosen by members for the newly-formed Women's Institute branch, meeting each month in Axminster.

An enthusiastic committee has arranged an interesting programme for this year where members will see cookery demonstrations, learn and try their hands at crafts and hear interesting speakers talking about their experiences.

It is also an opportunity for anyone interested in the WI in Axminster to come along and meet other members in a social environment where a warm welcome awaits.

The next meeting is in the Methodist Hall, Lyme Road, on February 18th starting at 7.30pm.

Much–needed redevelopment snatched away because of bats

SO, once again, the long-overdue and much-needed redevelopment of the Seaton Heights site has been scuppered, this time by... bats!

Totally batty if you ask me. At the risk of being shot down in flames and putting the cat amongst the bats by conservationists/naturalists, surely a modicum of common sense should exist here; a weighing up of priorities.

It's taken so long to get an acceptable plan for this site, the objections previously putting off any potential developer from proceeding further. During this time, the site has turned into an eyesore and, situated as it is, on a main, if not the main approach road, into Seaton, not giving the best first impression of the town.

Now it seems the promised, much-needed facilities, jobs and holiday accommodation look likely to be snatched from under our noses yet again, not by the planners this time but by Natural England, and an oversight on someone's part meaning that the requirement for the assessment came "very late".

This development is very important to the regeneration of Seaton and, whilst I realise that there is obviously an argument and a need for conservation, sometimes the cost is just too high (although I am sure that conservationists would argue that the cost is never too high!).

Brooms and paint would be better use of market funds

IT would appear that Seaton will not escape the decline of the high street; re-iterating the view of one shop keeper, Seaton is dead!

What an awful start to 2014 with at least five shops in the process of closing. It is not only the impact that Tesco has on independent traders, many other issues need addressing to encourage visitors to the town. For example, the dirty streets, the rusty old bikes in a flower bed and the dreadful appearance of the old Woolworths shop - none of which are attractive to the eye.

In my opinion, the artisan market promotion is a shocking waste of money. That money would have been better spent on a few brooms and some paint to smarten up Seaton's scruffy appearance.

Brian Bucklar,
Springfields, Colyford

Seaton – you are on the up!

LAST Saturday (January 11th) the sun shone and I was offered the chance of a walk around Seaton.

After not being able to get out for over six months, this was magic. Just to see how it had changed.

We came down Fore Street, only a few people about, and then into Windsor Gardens. What a change and very impressive, it should make a difference to Saturday markets, providing the council don't upset their local taxpayer by competing.

We then went down past the butchers, obviously having a revamp and boy, look at the old Kettle Cafe, what an improvement! It tidies up that bit of Seaton. Down then to the seafront with that wonderful vista. Yes, nothing must be done except to tidy up that mis-match of items, each fine in their own right but now looking tatty in their collection. Then on around to Jubilee Gardens, what a tidy up.

Well, my comments must be, Seaton you are on the up. More to do but definitely up. Thanks for a perfect Saturday.

Should all historic buildings be treated same way as Busy Bees?

WITH reference to Busy Bees in Axminster:

What a pity that an old building which has been neglected and allowed to get run down should be demolished.

Should we take this approach with all the historic buildings in this town? Wouldn't it be better to renovate the building and allow it to take its place with all the other very varied buildings we have in this fine town?

Christian Aid 2013 funds total £5,500

DESPITE the recession and many calls on every pocket, we are please to repot that £5,533 was raised from Christian Aid in 2013 by the Seaton Christian Aid Group.

We would like to thank all who contributed in any way to make such a creditable amount for the poorest of the world. The generosity of spirit, particularly in our Seaton churches in their giving time, money and talents, helping out however dreadful the weather, and always the happy fellowship between the churches working for the common cause, is the Christian glue that bonds us all together.

It is amazing that such a small group representing the churches in a small town can raise many thousands of pounds over the 40-plus years of its existence. My husband, John, and I feel humbled to have shared in this group since 1981, now retired, and pray that the aims and work of Christian Aid to alleviate suffering and overcome poverty and the causes of it, will continue to be well-supported in our lovely little town.

In this present turbulent world, we need more than ever to give hope and encouragement to those who have lost everything.

HOT news in the West Country this week is word on the next Bishop of Exeter – Robert Atwell who is currently the Suffragan Bishop of Stockport in Cheshire.

The provisional date for his inauguration is Saturday, July 5th.

This week Geoffrey Walsh offers his thoughts: "This year my wife and I experienced Christmas and the New Year with family in Saudi Arabia, the birthplace of the prophet Mohammed, the home of Islam.

"Shops are forced to close and customers evicted as the faithful are called to prayer five times a day. It is a country that demands women cover themselves from head to toe, banning them from driving and from having any physical contact with men in public.

"It bans alcohol, all pork products and has neither cinemas nor any public transport system. How we take our country and our freedom to worship for granted!"

Next month the subject of Women Bishops will be on the Agenda of the General Synod. If the Synod decides to follow the decision of last November that voting should be of the full Synod then there is a chance that now the main proposal will go through.

The Church Times advises that now is the time to join a major series on the state of the Church of England. Starting on January 31st, experts will unpick figures about church attendance and look at people's experience of Church. Later, leadership will be examined, as well as social impact, and looking into the future.

World War I memorials needing restoration grants have until January 31st to bid via www.devonrec.org.uk

HM Passport Office and the General Register Offices have produced an updated Guidebook for The Clergy, covering the nuts and bolts of marriage registration and burial law.

Much is concerned with the law as it affects clergy of the Church of England and the Church in Wales because, unlike other denominations, they are under a common law duty to marry and bury parishioners. Clergy of other denominations in England and Wales may possibly find it interesting.

Word from Ottery St Mary is of the New Life Church at King's School main hall on Sundays at 10:30am

The Methodist Church holds coffee mornings on Tuesdays at 10am. Any profit goes to local charities.

The United Reformed Church has a series of Sunday sermons that follow Christ's journey from birth at Christmas to His death and resurrection at Easter

At St Anthony's R.C. Church: Marian Prayer is from 10am on the first Tuesday monthly.

The Salvation Army has coffee at 10am on Fridays, then Cameo Club songs, etc. Sunday worship is from 3-4pm.

Ottery Parish Church holds its usual services with many other activities planned for next month.

This is an exciting time for the schools team at the Fairtrade Foundation. MARK Bazeley is the new owner and principal of performing arts school Stagecoach Honiton. He lives in Exmouth and loves spending holidays caravanning.

WHERE were you born and where have you lived so far?
I was born in Marlborough Hospital and my parents lived in a village just outside, called Lockeridge. We then moved to Bedford when dad found another teaching post. When I was seven we moved to Brixham in Torbay, where I spent the rest of my childhood.

TELL us about your professional background.
I have been both a cornet and clarinet player in the REME Staff Band. I have twice been a jewellery shop manager for a national chain. We moved to Exmouth in 1993 where I modernised three houses before finally becoming a teaching assistant to my wife in a pre-school/reception class.

How did you taking over Stagecoach Honiton come about?
Our son Stephen, who used to be a professional ballet dancer, started to teach dance with Stagecoach last September. Through him, my wife Karen was asked to provide teaching cover for the Early Years when a member of staff was poorly.

WILL there be a noticeable difference to Stagecoach Honiton with you in charge?
There shouldn't be a noticeable change because, with the exception of Karen, all of the teaching staff have remained. Also, our ethos is much the same as the former owner: we are not simply here to teach music, drama and dance, but to enable children to develop their creativity and self confidence in a nurturing environment.

HAVE you got a background in showbiz?
Aside from touring with the REME, I have been involved with amateur dramatics for many years. When the children were younger my wife and I became involved with panto and in 2002 we joined Salterton Drama Club where we have both performed in many plays. I made my directing debut in 2008 when we staged Peter Gordon's comedy Third Week In August.

WHICH was your dream job when you were at school?
I never had any ambitions as I didn't know what I wanted. I think I was perfectly happy playing in local youth bands and orchestras and spending time with my friends and family.

DO you have any hobbies?
Other than the drama,we get great pleasure from going away in our caravan. That came about because the play I directed was set in a caravan park and I had to try and source caravan parts for the set.

WHICH is your favourite holiday destination?
We love many parts of the UK, but have a real fondness for Pembrokeshire in Wales. It has beautifull scenery, it's tranquil and the people are very friendly.

WHAT makes you happy?
Spending time with family and close friends: You can completely relax, talking freely about anything you like, with like-minded people.

WHAT makes you angry or not so happy?
I despair when I hear politicians and business leaders spouting inflammatory comments and showing an apparent indifference towards the difficulties faced by many hard-working people.

ANY other business?
With both of my parents being retired teachers, I have been brought up to believe strongly in the importance of education. I also believe that we need to see the education of our children as something which is not confined to school. At Stagecoach we are encouraging children to participate in the performing arts and not to simply observe. Furthermore, the happy memories created are something which stay with children for life.

CUSTOMER TESTIMONIAL

Don't just take our word for it...

Advertising in the Pulman's View from works

AS A CONCERT PROMOTER, based in Budleigh Salterton, I already attract a large number of music fans from a variety of tried and tested sources although I am always looking to expand my database and to push my advertising out into areas hitherto untapped.

With this in mind, and with a very attractive programme of 'live' music already scheduled for 2014, I decided to use the View from series of newspapers in order to target a potential audience in Honiton, Ottery St Mary, Axminster, Seaton and surrounding hinterland of farms and villages and even out into West Dorset.

With very efficient, professional advice and input from the helpful View from advertising staff we devised an eye-catching advert and as I was able to supply a good quality, Hi-Res picture I was delighted to be offered the cover slot on the entertainments section. Within a day or two of the publishing date the phone was ringing…

To date the resultant ticket sales have returned my outlay many times over and traffic onto my Facebook page has increased by a factor of several hundred per cent! I have been absolutely delighted with the on-going response which has already produced precisely the result I was after…

Thanks and well done guys... I'll be back for more of the same defo!

New Year – New You!

Make 2014 the year you realise your dreams and improve your health and well-being with Traditional Acupuncture

ACUPUNCTURE is a very effective therapy for many health conditions, such as back pain and sciatica, insomnia, RSI, arthritis. However, you don't have to be ill in the conventional sense to benefit from Acupuncture. Many people contact me for help with low energy levels, low mood or just generally feeling unwell or run-down.

This is the time of year when people seek to improve their health. One way of doing this is to stop smoking. Traditional Acupuncture can help you to stop smoking by reducing cravings and withdrawal symptoms, as well as de-toxifying the body of nicotine. The treatment is given as a 5-day course.

Weight Management – Acupuncture can help you to lose weight. Combining a healthy eating program with Acupuncture treatment can speed up your metabolism and increase your health and energy evels.

Why not give me a call and see if I can help.

Rachel Rendell Healer & Psychic Medium

I AM a psychic medium giving private readings and Clairvoyant demonstrations. I run several development and meditation groups and workshops.

Readings - Connect with your loved ones in a private reading. My reading for you will bring precisely what is needed in your life right now. I link with my guides who bring through your friends or relatives in the spirit world. I give a clear reading helping you to become aware of the options and general direction you could take in your life.

Can't get out of the house? I offer telephone readings and email readings.

Healing - I was attuned to Reiki and qualified as a Crystal healer in 2003. I work in Axminster where I have my lovely therapy room. Reiki and Crystal healing can help with so many things because I work on both physical & emotional levels. Having trouble sleeping? Feel emotional but don't know why? Feeling drained? Healing can help with all these things and anything physical from broken bones to cancer. The client remains fully clothed whilst either sitting in a chair or laying on the couch then I place my hands around the body to channel the healing energy. The client may experience heat or tingling sensations and a deep feeling of peace and calm.

IN 2014 the Axminster Health & Wellbeing Centre is looking forward to the growth of all their charitable projects and to offering a wider selection of health & wellbeing awareness. At present the Centre offers over 15 different types of complementary therapies, yoga, meditation, healing, a self-help library and therapy rooms for hire. The Centre Therapists have a wealth of experience and knowledge on all health conditions and they take full confidential medical histories before embarking on the right treatment, ensuring the person is treated as a whole rather than an illness. The Centre is also interested in therapists who are looking to branch out and would like to be part of a professional team. Our rooms start from just £4 an hour for contract therapists. To be part of this team all therapists must be fully qualified, insured and affiliated to the correct professional body to practice within the Centre. Sharp Acupuncture

'Couch Potato Culture' Causes a Generation in Pain

Get Back to Health with Acupuncture.

A NEW study shows Bristol is risking a back pain epidemic caused by unhealthy habits and sedentary lifestyles. The findings from a study by the British Acupuncture Council to mark 'Acupuncture Awareness Week' (3rd-10th March 2014) show that almost 80 per cent of people suffer with back pain yet admit to behaviours that put their backs under necessary strain.

The study found that almost half of the nation admit to eating on their lap, 40 per cent complain they sit at a desk all day and over a third admit to watching TV or films in bed. When asked about their posture, almost a third also admitted they slouch most of the time.

Further results reveal that when it comes to dealing with back pain, 74 per cent say they repeatedly use painkillers to deal with their discomfort rather than addressing the root cause of the problem.

Hilary Sharp, a qualified member of the British Acupuncture Council, comments: 'Painkillers often numb the end symptom and mask the problem but do not address many of the combined underlying causes of back pain. By stimulating different points of the body, traditional acupuncture can be extremely beneficial for back pain, providing long term pain relief and reducing inflammation.'

With 2.3 million acupuncture treatments carried out each year, traditional acupuncture is one of the most popular complementary therapies practised in the UK today. Based on ancient principles which go back nearly two thousand years, acupuncture involves placing extremely fine, sterile needles painlessly at specific points on the body to trigger a healing response.

Despite acupuncture's widely recognised health benefits, many of us are missing the point when it comes to this ancient Chinese medicine. Statistics show that 41 per cent of people would only consider acupuncture as a last resort and 88 per cent didn't know the National Institute of Clinical Excellence (NICE) recommends the therapy for persistent, non-specific lower back pain.

Hilary Sharp continues: 'I find that many patients opt for the painkiller route with limited success before turning to acupuncture. Simple lifestyle changes alongside acupuncture could save millions of people taking medication every day. It's important to recognise the impact our behaviour has on our bodies and to make sure we are fully informed about all treatment options to promote long term health and wellbeing'.

Sam Davey Hypnotherapy

Hypnotherapy for well-being

ARE YOU struggling to make the changes you committed to on 1st January? Are you tired of feeling anxious or stressed? Fed up with feeling uncomfortable?

If so hypnotherapy can help you to regain control of your life and develop some inner peace and harmony.

Hypnotherapist Sam Davey clears up a common misconception when she says that clients maintain control throughout hypnosis. She says, "No one can be made to do or say anything against their will and you'll automatically reject any suggestions that don't feel right for you." She continues, "Clients are often surprised that hypnosis feels quite ordinary – just like sitting relaxing with your eyes closed or daydreaming. Most people find it a very relaxing, calming and up-lifting experience." Hypnotherapy can help with a wide range of issues including anxiety, stress, confidence, phobias, sleep problems, irritable bowel syndrome, pain management and weight-loss.

Sam Davey is a fully qualified hypnotherapist offering a friendly, professional service from therapy rooms in Seaton and Axminster. If you're interested in finding out how hypnotherapy can improve your physical and emotional well-being contact Sam for a free consultation on 07809 447720, or email info@hypno4freedom.co.uk. Try My Massage & Body Work

CATH du Preez MTI
Registered practitioner and full member of the Massage Training Institute (MTI) and the Complementary & Natural Healthcare Council (CNHC)

Massage is a hands-on, holistic method of health care.

Massage therapists use hands-on techniques on the muscles, fascia, tendons, ligaments and joints to bring relief from everyday aches, reduce stress, increase relaxation, address feelings of anxiety and tension, and aid general wellness.

Massage therapy also treats specific physical and medical conditions by releasing muscle tension, restoring muscle and postural balance, increasing circulation and improving tissue nutrition. Therapeutic massage can effectively treat long term chronic pain, motor vehicle accident rehabilitation, athletic injuries, repetitive strain injuries and nerve impingements.

It can also be used in support of other therapies to assist in the rehabilitation of muscular injuries i.e. massage can improve the effectiveness and comfort level of chiropractic or physiotherapy care.

Massage can also be an important part of a preventative maintenance program. For long term health, consider a maintenance plan of monthly treatments. This approach works well when you are at a level of health that you want to maintain. The monthly massages take care of minor aches before they become painful problems.

Gymnastics Festival to take place at Sidmouth Leisure Centre

SIDMOUTH Leisure Centre will be holding a Gymnastics Festival on Saturday 8th February from 9am – 5pm.

This year we welcome gymnasts from Broadclyst, Crediton, Colyton and Sidmouth leisure centre.. To give the competition a broader range we have introduced more gymnastic elements; vault and beam for the girl and parallel bars and vault for the boys. This challenges competitors in more components of the sport. Gymnasts have been working hard over the last couple of months to learn routines and our coaches have been working extremely hard to help them.

Over 100 entrants with gymnasts varying in age from 4—15yrs. Gymnasts are judged according to their age and routines have been choreographed based upon this and their own ability. Looking at strength, flexibility, skill, balance and performance judges will score on each piece of equipment and scores will be totalled for the results. There will be a cake stall with tea and coffee set up on the balcony from 11am and run by our volunteer parents (all proceeds will go towards some new equipment for Sidmouth leisure centre) please check out some of the delights.

Sidmouth Leisure Centre would like to thank Peter Mills and Somer Manly for organising such a great event to promote gymnastics across East Devon.

Get the widest marketing coverage for your home with Fortnam Smith & Banwell

Your home is your biggest asset so give it the best chance to sell by choosing the local independent agent with the widest marketing coverage.

Property Sharing Experts

Fortnam Smith & Banwell are members of the Property Sharing Experts, a group of 80 agents across the West Country (plus an office in W1 London) all working together to sell your home. Every agent is computer linked, therefore, if an applicant goes into any of the 80 offices, 16 of which are between here and Exeter, the properties of every agent covering their specified area will also match to them. The agent can then print the full details for that property and contact the relevant office to arrange a viewing. Vendors will only ever be contacted by their own agent who will also carry out the viewing as usual but if that applicant then goes on to purchase that property, the agent who introduced them receives a share of the commission, therefore the motivation is there – and it works! Effectively you get a multiple agency agreement for a sole agency fee. Your property would also feature on the independent websites of every Property Sharing Expert agent along with all of the national property portals that you would expect including RightMove and Zoopla.

The London Connection

In addition to this, Fortnam Smith & Banwell have also been specially selected to join the Mayfair Office Group based in London which extends the coverage Nationwide and most importantly into the South East. The Mayfair Office Group advertise in National papers such as The Daily Telegraph and The Times and glossy magazines such as Country Life. All of Fortnam Smith and Banwell's properties feature on the Mayfair Office website and thanks to their fantastic buying power and contacts within the National Press, the properties have the opportunity to be selected for free editorials within these titles – and, in fact, one of Fortnam Smith & Banwell's Seaton properties was featured in the Telegraph Property section recently!

Seaton Branch Manager Charlotte Reynolds comments 'With 60% of properties being sold to applicants from outside of the immediate locality, it's imperative that we cast our net as wide as possible. We've gone from strength to strength this past year and our success is down to the investment we put into our marketing and the honest, conscientious and proactive approach that every member of the team applies every day.'

To find out how Fortnam Smith and Banwell will apply their best efforts in the marketing and sale of your property, contact the office on 01297 23939.

A TRIP on the London Underground can often be a challenge in itself, but how about spending a whole weekend on the Tube, travelling on every line and passing through every station on the network?

That's what Pulman's View financial controller Anita Routely will be doing next month, raising funds for our Water Survival Box campaign.

Sponsor a station visit by calling Anita on 01297 446149 for donating online at http://uk.virginmoneygiving.com/anitaroutley

The Water Survival Box itself is an amazing bit of kit - an invaluable resource for victims of natural and manmade disasters around the world.

The box contains a water purification unit that doesn't need chlorine tablets but operates with a membrane that eliminates harmful particles from dirty water.

It also features essential survival items for cooking, eating, drinking, health and hygiene. Basic shelter, simple tools and key household items are also included.

The boxes are sent by air to ensure they arrive within days of a request for aid, with their standardised contents allowing for speedy transit through customs.

◆ IN A bid to raise £10,000 over two years for Water Survival Box, we are encouraging our readers and local organisations in East Devon, South Somerset and West Dorset – where we distribute in excess of 40,000 papers every week – to organise a fundraising event for the charity.

If you would like to help, telephone James Coles on 01297 446155 and we will promote your event in this newspaper. To make a donation, please make a cheque payable to 'Water Survival Box - View account' and send it to: James Coles, Water Survival Box campaign, View From Newspapers, Unit 3, St Michael's Business Centre, LYME REGIS, Dorset DT7 3DB.

Our fund reaches £3,000

LAUNCHED in November last year with the aim of raising £10,000 over the next two years, View From Newspapers' appeal for Water Survival Box has already reached £3,000.

Managing Director and View From editor Philip Evans is pictured above handing a cheque to Ken Biggs, representing the Rotary Club of Chelwood Bridge in North Somerset, which runs the charity. Also pictured is John McCallum, representing the Rotary Club of Lyme Regis, who assisted View From in setting up their appeal. The cheque was presented on Monday at a soup and ploughman's lunch organised by the Rotary Club of Lyme Regis, for the Water Survival Box charity.

Said Mr Evans: "We are delighted to have raised £3,000 in just under three months and we are confident that we will reach our £10,000 way ahead of schedule.

"Our readers and local organisations have already shown great generosity and the View From staff are getting up to all sorts of crazy things to boost the fund."

Mayor gives her support

FOR over thirteen years I worked for an overseas aid charity in Reading. We frequently shipped Rotary Shelter Boxes as well as other much needed aid to many countries.

I saw for myself when travelling overseas to deliver aid, the desperate situations people find themselves in through war and poverty. Many countries struggle to survive with floods, drought, and earthquakes. It is all too often the children, the vulnerable and elderly who suffer.

I am delighted that View From Newspapers have taken up the challenge to raise much needed funds to purchase Rotary Water Survival Boxes.

I am confident these boxes will make the difference between life and death, health and disease. I know what a difference even a pound donation can make so I am pleased to support this appeal by giving a donation of £100 from the Mayor's fund.

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE

Lindy Parry – Podiatrist / Chiropodist

I HOLD my private chiropody clinic at Townsend House Surgery in Seaton on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

I offer a range of treatments from a simple nail cut to nail surgery, and each treatment plan is priced accordingly.

The nail cutting only service is a shorter appointment and is ideal for those that don't have any other foot care needs. Others like to alternate nail cuts with chiropody treatments as it best suits their requirements. I always aim to work with the patient to find the best treatment plan to suit each individual. Patients feet are then monitored during treatment so that changes can be made should the need arise.

Diabetic patients who attend for chiropody will also have a diabetic foot assessment carried out during their first treatment, and will then be monitored and re-assessed as necessary.

My chiropody clinics are available to anybody seeking help with their feet and Townsend House and I look forward to welcoming you.

Bookings can be made by calling 01297 22956.

Toyota RAV4: Even better for 2014

IT'S 20 years since Toyota RAV4 created a whole new motoring market with the launch of RAV4, the original compact recreational SUV. While other manufacturers have been keen to follow Toyota's lead, RAV4 continues to develop and deliver performance, specification and choice that keep pace with changing customer demand.

That's the inspiration for the 2014 RAV4 which hits the road this week, building on the model's inherent strengths with a new powertrain and even higher equipment specifications.

New 2.0 D-4D with all-wheel drive

Customers choosing Toyota's efficient 2.0-litre D-4D diesel engine for their RAV4 have, until now, only had the option of two-wheel drive. For 2014 this popular unit has been made available with all-wheel drive, increasing access to 4×4 motoring with the kind of low emissions and strong fuel economy that help keep running costs down.

The new RAV4 2.0 D-4D AWD is available in Icon and Invincible grades. The 122bhp (91kW) engine generates 310Nm for the kind of flexible driving performance that makes the car as easy to manage around town or out on the open road. Coupled to a six-speed manual transmission it returns official combined cycle figures of 137g/km (Band E for Vehicle Excise Duty) and 53.3mpg.

Toyota Touch 2

All versions of RAV4 bar the entry level Active model are equipped as standard with the Toyota Touch 2, the latest evolution of Toyota's touch-screen-operated multimedia system.

It comes with a new high-resolution screen that uses four times as many pixels as the original system, for bright, sharp images.

The package includes Bluetooth for hands-free phone calls and sending and receipt of text messages; a rear-view camera; vehicle information, including trip data, climate control profile; and management of settings for door locking and lighting.

Motorists face bigger hole in the pocket from growing pothole menace

Britain's pothole strewn roads are leaving motorists with an annual bill of £1.2 billion for suspension, steering and wheel repairs – a rise of 16% in just 12 months.

With heavy rain continuing to erode the surface of Britain's roads, new figures from Halfords Autocentres reveal that more than 8.9 million vehicles have suffered steering or suspension damage as a result of potholes over the past year.

Dangerous potholes reported to hard-up councils have increased by 18% over the past 12 months according to motoring and cycling websites monitoring this issue and estimates from the Asphalt Industry Alliance suggest that the UK's roads are pitted with as many as 2 million craters.

Rory Carlin from Halfords Autocentres explained: "The surface of our roads is deteriorating to the point where drivers are now likely to encounter a potentially damaging pothole during most journeys - with rain-filled holes being harder to see and avoid.

"In a new car a small pothole can damage wheels, tyres and shock absorbers but with large numbers of drivers keeping their cars for longer and cutting back on routine maintenance older, less well maintained cars are even more vulnerable."

Rectifying the damage caused by potholes can be unexpectedly costly, with an average repair bill of £140, and insurance companies attribute as many as one in five mechanical vehicle failures to pothole-related damage.

Halfords Autocentres' figures reveal that some regions had far higher incidences of pothole damage than others - with drivers on the south coast collectively being hit hardest with an £85 million repair bill, closely followed by motorists in Kent and the East Midlands who pay around £78 million and £75 million respectively.

The Government and local authorities are now spending almost £1 billion a year on highway maintenance but, despite repairing more than 2.2 million potholes a year, experts believe that fixing the backlog could take more than 10 years.

Rory Carlin added: "Cutting back on maintenance is a false economy because it increases the risk of damage to a vehicle going unnoticed as well as the likely repair costs to rectify it.

"If you hit a pothole it is always worth getting an expert opinion – even if there are no immediate after-effects such as unexplained noises or wheel damage."

A new show of strength for Audi Q7 S Line Edition models

THE AUDI Q7 already cuts an imposing figure, but new S line Style Edition and S line Sport Edition versions of the acclaimed seven-seat, air-suspended luxury SUV ramp up its visual impact even further through striking styling enhancements. The new S line Edition models are available now priced from £52,975 OTR to £64,100 OTR.

The S line Style Edition specification is available in conjunction with 3.0-litre V6 TDI 245PS and 4.2-litre V8 TDI 340PS engines, and adds £1,500 to the price of the equivalent Q7 S line plus model in each case. In the S line Style Edition, the standard 21-inch five-segment-spoke alloy wheels are replaced by five-arm rotor design matt titanium-finish wheels of the same size which are exclusive to this model in the Q7 range. These sit beneath a body which looks even more rugged thanks to the addition of an upgraded offroad styling package which includes stainless steel underbody protectors and extended wheel arches flowing into special bumpers with modified lower sections - uniquely in the Edition models these are painted in body colour.

Q7 S line Style Edition models include solid, metallic or pearl effect paint as standard in a choice of seven colours – Night black, Teak brown, Lava grey, Orca black, Graphite grey, Daytona grey or Scuba blue.

The particularly muscular look of the remarkable 500PS Q7 V12 TDI of 2010 provided inspiration for the S line Sport Edition specification. Also available in combination with 3.0-litre TDI 245PS and 4.2-litre TDI engines, it carries a premium of £3,000 over S line Plus models. It adds a titanium finish for the 21-inch five-segment-spoke wheels, and a sport styling package including body-coloured wheelarch extensions, enlarged front air intakes with high gloss slats, lower bumper spoilers, stainless steel underbody protection and dual oval exhaust tailpipes integrated into the rear bumper. S line Sport Edition specification includes a no-cost choice from all thirteen of the solid, metallic or pearl effect paints available for the Q7 range.

▲ More sports kit for the Audi Q7

On the top rung of the ladder, the S line Plus specification on which these special edition models are based is fittingly all-encompassing in itself. As well as an upgrade to a 21-inch wheel, it includes features such as privacy glass from the B-pillar rearwards, xenon headlamps with LED daytime running lamps, supple Verano leather upholstery, stainless steel side running boards, powered tailgate operation, HDD satellite navigation, the Audi parking system advanced with visual and acoustic guidance, the Audi Music Interface and Audi connect bringing the many benefits of the Internet to the car. All Q7 models offer features such as adaptive air suspension, double glazing and a seven-seat configuration as standard.

Jaguar Announces New Xk Signature And Dynamic R Special Editions For Uk Market

THE FIRST Jaguar car to be created under the leadership of Design Director Ian Callum, the dramatic and purposeful XK, is receiving a number of additions for the 2015 model year that add to its palette of impressive performance technologies and luxury features.

Two special edition models will be available in exclusive Signature and Dynamic R specifications. The 2015 Model Year XK line-up now comprises Signature, Dynamic R and R-S derivatives.

The luxury focused XK Signature model – with a 385PS 5.0-litre V8 engine – is fitted with a host of additional features including standard 20" Kalimnos wheels and Reverse Park Camera, while the performance focused 510PS 5.0-litre supercharged XK Dynamic R – based on the existing XKR – offers Black Dynamic Pack, which incorporates XKR-S suspension and dynamics and a 10mm reduction in ride height, plus Speed Pack, which equips the car with an Aerodynamic Pack and an increased top speed of 174mph. A Performance Active Exhaust is also standard equipment.

First deliveries to UK customers of the new XK Signature and Dynamic R editions are expected in March.

XK POWERTRAIN AND DYNAMICS

Jaguar sports cars have a reputation for blending athletic high-performance with effortless cruising comfort. Nothing exemplifies this dual character more clearly than the supercharged 5.0-litre V8 engine fitted to both XK special edition cars.

Now in its third generation, this engine offers not only tremendous power but also great efficiency by incorporating the very latest technology including spray-guided direct injection (SGDI) and dual independent variable cam timing (DIVCT). Like the car itself, the engine is constructed from high-grade, lightweight aluminum, which in the cylinder heads is recycled to reduce the environmental impact of manufacture.

The XK Signature can reach 60 mph in 5.2 seconds in Coupé guise, and 5.3 seconds for the Convertible, each car producing a meaty 515Nm of torque. The top speed for both variants is electronically limited to 155mph and both cars produce just 264 g/km of CO2. The XK Dynamic R's 5.0-litre supercharged V8, offers power and torque figures of 510PS and 625Nm respectively, taking the car to 60mph in just 4.6 seconds with a limited top speed of 174mph. Extremely powerful but also efficient, the XK Dynamic R emits 292g/km of CO2.

Both XK Dynamic R and Signature models are fitted with a six-speed ZF automatic gearbox with steering wheel-mounted paddles, which control the Jaguar Sequential Shift function for greater driver control.

The supercharged XK Dynamic R edition also benefits from Jaguar's Active Differential Control technology. This uses a multi-plate clutch to vector torque to the driven wheel with the most grip. Allied to ABS and stability control, this allows for the ultimate in traction and precision both mid-corner and at its exit. The XK Signature model uses a mechanical differential, which delivers outstanding levels of grip and stability under power.

Both cars feature Dynamic Stability Control system, which offers four modes: Normal, Winter, TracDSC and DSC Off, allowing the enthusiastic driver to choose the level of intervention dependent on road conditions.

South West Peninsula derby game washed out

ONCE again the wet weather bit deep into scheduled the local football lists.

The big South west Peninsula League Division One local derby between Axminster Town and Sidmouth Town was a victim with the Colyton Grammar School pitch waterlogged.

The local duo face tough looking matches against two of the top three next Saturday.

Axminster head off to Foxhayes where third-placed Exwick Villa lay in wait.

At the same time Sidmouth are due to entertain table toppers Teignmouth at Manstone Road.

ROUND-UP

THE Mitchell brothers combined both on and off the field to get OTTERTON through to the East area final of the Devon Intermediate cup.

Two goals from Lee Mitchell one from Ryan won their home tie against LANGDON 3-2, and that after the pair along with their other brother Andy had spent all morning getting their Stantaway ground playable.

Langdon came close, scoring through Phill Nicholson and Bryn Rysdale, but it was the rollers day, and they now await the winners of next weeks other semi between Henrys Cronies and Starcross Generals.

Three Premier games survived the bad weather including that at second place ST MARTINS where gallant neighbours TOPSHAM TOWN were unseated 3-0.

The Tops young side managed to get to the break on level terms, but once Kevin Pike struck for the Saints the writing was on the wall.

Nathan Melton and Andy Brooks added further goals but penalty king Darren Bingham missed one, which is the first time ever according to his colleagues.

CLYST VALLEY also came from a goal down to draw 1-1 with a useful CHARD TOWN RESERVES. Jordan Harris was the Valley marksman.

SIDBURY UNITED drew 2-2 at the UNIVERSITY in their Division One clash and felt they paid the price for not taking advantage of the first-half wind on their backs.

Adam Connett and Dan Churchill scored for Sidbury. Connor Hamill and Jack O'-Dowd were the college marksmen.

BEACON KNIGHTS won 2-0 at ALPHINGTON in the other game played, a result the Knights really needed.

EXWICK VILLA were another side to spend saturday morning working on their ground and it paid off as they beat WESTEXE ROVERS 3-1 in the only Division Two match to survive.

Having lost all 13 opening matches in Division Three, EXMOUTH AMATEURS had reason to celebrate with a 1-1 draw at home to OTTERY ST MARY. However, they are still in a minus points position.

HEMYOCK won 2-1 at CHAGFORD in the other game, Max McKeown and Paul Kingdom getting the Hems goals. Jai Minett scored for the moormen.

HATHERLEIGH TOWN won 7-0 against visiting SANDFORD in their Division Four clash, while NEWTOWN won 2-0 at home to AWLISCOMBE UNITED.

Jack Davis, and a wonder goal from substitute and fourth teamer Adam Smith, won it for Newtown.

FENITON beat SEATON TOWN 1-0 in the sole Division Five match, a speculative drive out of the blue from Billy Parnell dividing the teams.

Bottom side Seaton played well but were denied by some excellent keeping from Chris Palfrey.

In Division Six HALWILL RESERVES ran up a cricket score at home to bottom of the table AMORY GREEN ROVERS winning 16-2, but according to the Tiverton side they only lost 12-2.

Halwill's scorers were Vince Brown (6), Sam Stockdale (2), and Steve Hallet (2), Jake Courtier, Jason Winser, Gareth Osman, Gary Sleep, Jack Crimmins and manager Geoff Harbor.

Paul Hawkins and Adrian Browning managed to get a couple back for the Green men.

EAST BUDLEIGH RESERVES won 3-0 at home to HONITON TOWN RESERVES in the other match played, Ben Wilkes, Ben Wyatt and Dave Atkinson scoring.

No matches were played in Division's Seven and Eight, the weather being the only winner there.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE

OVER in the Perry Street League Dan Murnane put MILLWEY RISE ahead against Combe Reserves at Harry's Field.

But the Saints came marching back to win 2-1.

Next up for Millwey is Saturday's visit by fellow mid-tablers Beaminster.

Elsewhere, both HAWKCHURCH UNITED and MILLWEY RISE RESERVES crashed out of the Daisy Hutchings cup at the second round stage.

Rise went down 1-0 at Winsham Reserves while the Hawks were on the end of something of a giant killing as they were also beaten by a solitary goal by fourth Division title chasers Merriott Dynamos.

Next up for Rise is a trip north to take on Ilminster Town A while the Hawks head over the Dorset border to face Lyme Regis Bantams.

Colin Bishop

MEMBERS of Feniton Football club have been left mourning the death of popular Club Chairman, ex-player and club stalwart of many years Colin Bishop who lost his brave battle against Leukaemia last Saturday afternoon at the age of 58.

A statement on the club's website read: "The thoughts and sympathies of everyone connected with the Club are with his wife Jenny and his family.

"Colin was hugely proud of the club's achievements last season especially the first team's winning of the Premier Division title describing them as 'the best ever side to have graced Acland Park'.

"Such was his love of football, and Feniton FC in particular, Colin's family requested that they supply the pall bearers for his funeral which took place at Ottery St Mary Church last Friday.

"A true gentleman in every respect and one of life's 'Mr Nice Guys', Colin will be greatly missed by all."

WITH both OPG and Flamingos winning again this week It's down to a two-team race for the Division One title.

Sidmouth Toucans are already relegated back down to the second tier next while the other relegation spot is between Hi Q, Signs South West and Uplowman.

Last week SSW dropped to fifth but this week bounced back to fourth, changing places with Uplowman, thanks to their victory over Sidmouth Toucans by 38-27, with Toucans doing enough to gain their third point of the season.

Uplowman dropped back into fifth place when they went down 29-24 against table-toppers OPG.

Hi Q held on to third place with a fine point gained against second placed Flamingos.

Division 2

IN the second tier Tip Top Trees moved four points clear at the top of the table thanks to their 35-16 victory over second placed Otter Valley Dairy.

The size of the defeat meant that OVD didn't collect any points and as result dropped back to third place with Pixies taking their place after continuing their climb back up the table.

This came as a result of a close fought 20-16 win over JD Tyres.

This was Pixies fifth win in a row, the last time they had lost being against JD Tyres back in November!

With Howden Hawks also picking up three points against Blackdown Ladies after a 20-12 win any two of the top five are still in with a mathematical chance of promotion, while the Hawks still have a outside chance of the top flight next season.

Pinder through to Devon honour

■ May Wood

ON Saturday, January 18th May Wood (Yr9) and Tony Pinder (Yr10) represented the Axe Valley Community College as part of the East Devon & Exeter team at the Devon Schools Cross Country Championships in Bideford, North Devon writes Tracy Moran.

There had been a week of heavy rain in the lead up to the event and fields were saturated.

In a field of 48 runners Wood took to her first experience of County running in her new spikes!

The first lap of the 3,060m course was completed at a steady pace as she found her stride.

The second lap saw a more confident run and Wood slowly made progress on several runners.

A strong finish up the last hill placed her in a credible 26th place in a time of 15min 32sec.

muddy conditions

Pinder had to wait for a further two races to be completed before his intermediate boys race (5,360m) started this meant the already muddy conditions were now a mud bath in several spots.

Tony positioned himself well for a fast strong start and was in the top three for the first-half of the race.

Going into the last 1200m he not only looking very dirty but he was also looking very tired.

He disappeared out of sight for approximately 500m then reappeared in 7th position, but still with enough energy to flash a look at the camera and power on through the final climb!

With 400m to go Pinder used the last downhill section to his advantage. He sprinted past one athlete and just managed to cross the line in 6th position in a time of 18min 57secs.

Pinder will now go on to represent Devon at the South West Championships in Bournemouth on Feb 8th - an excellent achievement considering he was racing alongside Yr 11 boys.

HONITON
with Tony Broughton

THE Men played their fifth match in the Over 60's County Trophy League this week against the Budleigh Salterton Club and were much more successful winning 3 out of 4.

The Home teams of Bill Nicholls, Denis Hillyear, Roger Binmore and Terry House 16-15

Dick Summers, Ray Gregory, Tony Tooley, Gareth Mettam 34-16. Whilst the away teams of Peter Goodwin, Ted Cox, Ken Clarke and Keith Parsons 26-20 and Fred Cowey, Bernard Tonkin, Bill Sheerman and Mike Smith 16-24.

The ladies had a good win in the Top Club competition against Barnstaple.

At home Ann Hillyear, Berry Maynard and Pearl Hackwood won the Triples, whilst Carole Binmore won the 4 Bowl Singles.

Away Julie Grant won the 2 Bowl Singles, the fours and pairs at this time were both behind but as Honiton had already won three from five Barnstaple conceded the match.

The men did not fare so well in their next round of the Top Club against Madeira only winning 2 of the 5 disciplines Kieran Daniels won the 2 Bowl Singles 21-13 and Tony Tooley & Trevor Pipe won the pairs 23–19 after being 17-4 down.

A friendly mixed match at home against the Exeter, Isca Club resulted in all four rinks winning.

M Singleton, R Harrison, G Kille and K Clarke 19-15. R Taylor, D Tooley, L Gadd and T Broughton 14-13. J Lee, V Kille, B Singleton, C Dann 22-17 and G Morfey, J Harrison, P Gadd, K Morfey 26-15.

The friendly match away to Sidmouth saw Honiton winning on two of the three rinks and 57-48 overall.

Margaret Tawse, Richard Chapple, both new bowlers, Alan Fuller and Bill Nicholls 20-16 but top was Fenella Griggs, June Lee, Carol Armitage and Tony Broughton 23-12.

On Sunday the Devon Under 21 side played the Somerset Under 25 side at Isca.

Honiton were well represented with no less than eight (Jimmy Smith, Isaac and Kieran Daniels, Liam Crawford, Lewis Campbell, Scott Eveleigh, Kattre Voznjuk and Hannah Morfey) of their youngsters called up in the 24 strong side.

The match did not go Devon's way and two rinks lost by 22 and 23 shots respectively this contributed heavily to the overall loss by just 46 shots.

WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS ROUND-UP

The World Indoor Bowls Championships have been taking place over the last two weeks and once again proved that Bowls is indeed a sport for all ages.

Katherine Rednall (18) a qualifier from Ipswich won the Ladies World Indoor Singles Championship by beating the favourite and last year's champion Rebecca Fields (24) 14-4 & 11-3.

At the other end of the spectrum, to show that older folk can still compete at world class level, Katherine had to beat 69-year-old Eleanor Gass of Cumbria in the quarter final.

In what other sport can you find a pensioner playing a school girl in the last eight of a World Championship?

Devon were well represented in the Men's Singles with Torquay's Danny Denison, also a qualifier, reaching the last 16 only to be beaten by the World Number 1 Paul Foster.

Exonia's Rob Paxton played Andy Thompson in the quarter-final, the 58 year old Scotsman has been an England International for well over 20 years and put up a good fight.

But Paxton came out a two straight sets winner before losing in two sets to Darren Burnett in the semi-final.

In the other semi-final Paul Foster played Mervyn King whose supurb draw play put the world no 1 in real trouble and finally gave him a two sets win to take the other final spot.

In a thrilling final both players took one set each forcing the three end decider set where only ends won count not shots.

At one end each both players had bowls within inches of the jack but Darren eventually emerged victorious 2-1 and was crowned World Indoor Singles Champion 2014.

The next big event in Bowls will be the Commonwealth Game in Glasgow in July this year.

Bowls as a sport for all ages is being vigorously supported by Sports England and the BBC hoping to encourage both young and old to take up the sport as a means of keeping fit and making friends.

If you want to keep in touch with the world of Bowls look at these websites: World Bowls Tour, the Professional Bowls Association, World Bowls, English Indoor Bowling Association (EIBA), Bowls England and Bowls Devon.

Chipley Park beats the weather

TIVERTON FOXHOUNDS
(Devon & Cornwall Area Point-to-Point Association)

AT last this season we were able to enjoy sunshine from a clear blue sky at Chipley Park writes Granville Taylor.

It was not all plain sailing though with lashings of mud around the bookies and paddock which made wellington boots the essential fashion accessory.

A total of 108 runners contested the 10 races with soft going putting a premium on stamina. All credit to the organisers in defeating the endless wet spell to provide quality racing on soft going.

"We even had to drain the bottom bend with six inch pipes after it rained again on Saturday night," said secretary Keith Granger.

The Mixed Open saw champion jockey Will Biddick displaying his artistry with a smooth success on Certain Flight. Biddick saved every inch of ground on the rails until edging his mount ahead of All Great N Theory in the home straight.

Keith Cumings trains Certain Flight for owners Richard and Tina Dunsford, and was quick to pay tribute to the rider. "He was given a lovely ride. I was not sure how he would cope with the ground"

The Devon mare Lucette Annie revelled in the conditions to score on her seasonal debut in the Mares race. The mare looked really on song and now heads to the valuable Buckfastleigh Mixed Open she won last year.

"Our gallops on the farm at Poundsgate have been waterlogged and we missed Wadebridge this year. She is a lot stronger and has done a lot of hill work" remarked Simon Partridge who trains the tough chestnut on behalf of owners Chris and Janet Humphrey.

Ottery St Mary based Ed Walker sent out a winner with his first runner of the season in the shape of Blazing Whale in the 16-runner Intermediate in the hands of Robbie Henderson.

"We have only just started because they all came in fat. He is a proper old fashioned chaser," commented the trainer, who shares ownership in the Classic Cliché gelding with Francis Read.

Classic Cliché was also responsible for siring the Novice Riders' winner Justabout, who is out of Cheltenham Gold Cup runner-up Dubacilla.

The winner was ridden by Ciaran Gethings who forced his mount up to beat Tamatown and Barneys Mate in a blanket finish. "Ciaran works for Philip Hobbs and schooled him there the other day, but I ride him out at home," proclaimed the 74-year-old trainer.

Thorverton trainer Robert Chanin saddled a remarkable seventh consecutive winner in the space of five weeks when For The Staff , owned by Roger Knowles and Annie Argyrides, stayed on well under Ian Chanin to win the Hunt Race.

"We wanted to give him an easy race to start him off because he had a few hard races last year," said the trainer.

The first division of the Restricted produced the closest finish of the day as Romassor and Un Ami fought out a neck and neck battle.

It was the recent Wadebridge winner Romassor who was awarded the verdict by a short head under Tom David. "He is a big horse with an enormous stride who will keep on improving." said trainer Chloe Roddick.

Illicit Illusion initiated a double for jockey Sam Drinkwater and trainer Tom Lacey in the other Restricted division. The Heron Island six-year-old, owned by the jockey's father Paul, just held the sustained challenge of Whenharrymetsally to follow up his Barbury Castle Maiden victory.

"This is a lovely course, it's the first time I have ridden here," said Sam who went on to complete the double on five-year-old Thedrinkymeister in the first Open Maiden which had to be divided on the day.

The winner is another produce of Heron Island out of a mare called Keel Row who won a couple of hurdle races for the Queen Mother.

Only two finished in the other division which went to the previously unraced Master Hooper, ridden by Matt Hampton.

Julie Purdie owns and trains this sturdy home bred Kayf Tara six-year-old at Butterleigh, Devon. "He is still a bit burly and is the fourth winner out of Rempstone who won a point-to-point for us," said Julie's husband Sax.

The 15 runners for the concluding Maiden were despatched at 4.40 in gathering gloom. Big Georgie saw out the trip best under James Ridley to step up on his promising effort at Chaddesley Corbett.

This strong gelding is trained by the jockey's mother Heather for owner Alastair McLeish at Newent, Gloucestershire. "We do plenty of work and jumping over an old cross country course at home," said the rider.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS
with Dave Mutter

AFTER the plethora of runners racing last weekend Carol Austin was the lone AVR to complete the Cannon Hill (Birmingham) 5K park run in 21:25.

Carol was 3rd age grade position on the day (79%), 5th woman and 1st W50 out of 472 runners.

AHONITON RUNNING CLUB
with Judy Davey

CLUB members didn't have to travel too far to take part in the recent Axe Valley Runners' 9½ mile Axmouth Challenge.

The rain of recent weeks ensured the tracks and fields were suitably wet and muddy. The weather was perfect for running with a bit of frost but not enough to make the roads icy.

Tom Bornet was the first back for Honiton coming 26th in a time of 1 hour 14 minutes and 15 seconds.

Steve Davey was next back to finish just 20 seconds later. He was followed by Rod Inglis who had a great run to come 35th in 1:18:04. Next followed Howard Bidmead who came 43rd in 1:19:04.

This was Vernon Gillard's first race for a while but he showed he was still keeping up the training to come 46th in 1:20:33.

Judy Davey was the sole Honiton lady completing the Honiton line-up to finish 55th in 1:23:08. There were 113 finishers and the race was won by AVR's Simon Bayliss in the fantastic time of 1:01:14.

If runners weren't brave enough to tackle the full race they could choose to do just one loop and run about five miles.

Honiton Junior Findlay Fuller won the race in a time of 39:45. John Burgess enjoyed the race feeling no pressure and taking photos along the way. He finished 10th in 59:25. There were 17 finishers.

Thanks to AVR for a great well-organised event.

Last year's Honiton Running Club's Blackdown Beast was in jeopardy because of the deep snow leading up to the event but last Sunday there was none of that but with the rain of recent weeks the challenges were mainly mud and bogs.

The 16-mile long Beast saw over 140 runners taking part. The event is a social run with several stops on route at convenient pubs. The event began and ended at the Highfield Social Club.

The first stop, after 7½ miles, was Smeatharpe Village Hall where participants were treated to mulled cider and pasties - thanks to the ladies of the WI!

The next stop was the Sidmouth Arms where some runners took the opportunity of taking a mini bus back to Dunkeswell having completed 10 miles then it was on to the Luppitt Inn.

The last leg is always challenging with plenty of chance of getting lost but this year there was a diversion which meant extra mileage!

Participants will now be looking forward to the summer version; the Blackdown Beauty. Places are likely to go fast for this event too so look out for further information on www.honitonrc.com.

Thanks to John Burgess, the main organiser, but also to everyone else involved in organisation.

Money raised will go to Smeatharpe Village Hall and Macmillan Cancer Support.

Geoff leaves all in his Wake!

HONITON with Andy Wagner
Captain's Charity
OUR new catering staff Lisa, Maisy and Bill threw a 'meet and greet' party on Saturday so that the members could get to know them and sample their fayre.

The friendly atmosphere and excellent buffet provided an ideal backdrop for Club Captain Dave Morgan to present his charity's total collection to the Cystic Fibrosis Trust.

This year is the 50th anniversary of the trust and the charity's local representative, Liz Brown, was pleased to receive a cheque for over £4222 collected in Dave's year of office.

The day was a clear representation of what makes Honiton Golf Club such a friendly place.

Tuesday Mixed
THE popular 2 Ladies 2 Gents Team Stableford with best Lady and best Gent score to count on each hole was this week's format.

The winning team with an excellent score of 81 points were Sue and Paul Ritchie and Su and Den Calver.

In 2nd place with 74pts the new Lady Captain Elizabeth Davies playing with Elizabeth Wood, Andy Sharland and Chris Poole.

In third place with 72pts on c/b were Di Wall, Steph and Bob Barnes and Robert Hendrick. Lady Captain Elizabeth presented the prizes.

Ladies Section
RAIN yet again put paid to any competition on Wednesday but it did not deter our new Lady Captain, Elizabeth Davies, from completing her initial Drive-In.

The sun followed her down the 18th fairway as she set up and made a brilliant drive straight down the middle, to the delight of her crowd of supporters.

High spirits continued into the Clubhouse where the ladies and guests were treated to a wonderful buffet lunch.

The Lady Captain's Charity this year will be "Balloons", which helps children and young people who suffer bereavement.

AXE CLIFF with Janet Dack
Seniors
CONDITIONS were mainly dry for the Seniors' January Medal last Friday.

But squally rain caught the final three which included the eventual winner.

Sid Pember (20) had been leading with an excellent 69 nett before a wet Geoff Wake (14) pipped him at the post with the same score but winning on countback. Third, two shots behind on 71 nett, was Peter Knighting (16).

Pember, Knighting and Tony Strong recorded the only 2s.

On Monday the fifth round of the Seniors Winter League was played and, despite an icy start and tricky conditions, the scoring was remarkably good with Terry Jessup & David Lacey amassing 39 points to win.

Second place went to Gilbert Cox & Alan Vincent with 37 points and third to Chris Walker & Bob Berry with 34 points.

There were three 2s, from Phil Wilkins, Rob Grove and once again Sid Pember

Ladies
THE winning pairing for the Australian Spoons competition played on a glorious morning last Wednesday were Lesley Crawford and Janet Dack.

■ HAPPY TO HELP: Honiton Golf Club Captain Dave Morgan presents Liz Brown from the Cystic Fibrosis Trust with a cheque for £4222 which was raised during his year in office.
